BEVERAGE CONTAINER RECYCLING... DONE RIGHT

No matter how you recycle, it'll save you (or pay you) precious dollars on your waste disposal bill. Consider these two recycling options the next time you finish a refreshing, cold beverage:

- Take your aluminum, glass and plastic beverage containers to your local recycling center for a cash refund (5 ¢ for containers less than 24 oz. and 10 ¢ for containers 24 oz. or larger).
- Toss your rinsed beverage containers into your blue curbside recycling cart with your other recyclables.

No matter what, you'll be reducing the overall waste you are placing in your garbage can, thereby saving you money and conserving precious resources. For more information on beverage containers eligible for a cash refund, please visit www.calrecycle.ca.gov/bevcontainer/.

DID YOU KNOW?

Plastic garbage that ends up in landfills or waterways will outlive your grandchildren's grandchildren and plastic that is recycled requires a lot of energy and water, and can only be recycled a handful of times. The best option is to reduce the amount of disposable plastic in your life altogether. Here's a few easy ideas to get you started:

- Ditch disposable straws. Plastic straws are a disposable item you can easily do without.
- Stop buying bottled water. Invest in a water filter and purchase a reusable bottle. You'll be surprised how quickly the savings add up.
- Don't put plastic on your face. Many consumer items like facewash and toothpaste contain plastic microbeads as exfoliators. Unfortunately, the plastic is so small that wastewater treatment plants can't filter it out, so it pollutes our water. Consider natural exfoliators like apricot shells and cocoa beans.
- Choose to reuse. Re-evaluate plastic baggies, plastic wrap and disposable plastic storage containers. Why not use hearty reusable containers? Plus, you'll save quite a bit of money over time.
